- important to note that none of these things may be said concerning Israel's re-establishment in 1948

Episode 17: ISRAEL'S RESTORATION ACCORDING TO MOSES

- The scriptures teach that the return to the land will not just be revival of Jewish nationalism; It will be a spiritual revival if the whole nation, a complete return to the Lord forever
- MOSES —
  - Deuteronomy 4:29-31
  - Deuteronomy 30:1-6
- Part of our mandate as Gentile believers is to remind the Jewish people of these very things to possess something signifies permanence
- Deuteronomy 32:37-39 - in the aftermath of the holocaust, the corporate cry that arose from the Jewish nation was one of Self-sufficiency and strength versus dependence upon the Lord

Episode 18: Israel's salvation according to the prophets

The Prophets: Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel

Isaiah 60: one of the most beautiful, detailed vision of the messianic kingdom after the return of Jesus - Jesus ruling from Zion on the throne. It describes the nation's streaming to Jerusalem to worship the King.

With Isaiah 60 is Isaiah 59

Isaiah 59:20-21: For those who repent, a redeemer will come to Jerusalem

- these verses were one of the earliest and clearest Descriptions of the new covenant prophesied in Old Testament
- the fulfillment of The Mosaic covenant will not happen apart from the new
- all 3 big prophets prophesied the new covenant ... not just a Concept
- in this passage we see the following:
  - coming of the Messiah
  - National repentance of Israel
  - Restoration to the land
  - new covenant of the Spirit

- Jeremiah 30:8-11 “ David their King” refers to the Son of David, Jesus Christ

The language of restoration, etc. happens within a brief period of time, within the context of Jesus’s return

- Jeremiah 31:27-34 The last days are a greater version of the exodus; the exodus is a pattern for the ultimate deliverance and redemption to come
  - analogies are used to communicate intimacy
  - The ultimate reality of which is this: “ I will be their God, and they will be my people “
- Ezekiel 34:23-27 Written hundreds of years before David, it was always understood that the Son of David would be the Messiah, Israel’s King
  - The covenant of peace is more than solely salvation;
  - Israel’s restoration to the land and her salvation are mutually entwined
- Ezekiel echoes what the other prophets said; Israel will know that God is the Lord after He delivers them from slavery

- Ezekiel 36:23-31

Not only does Israel come to know the Lord, also those who are left among the nations after His judgments

Again we will see the following:

- the coming of the Messiah
- Israel's national repentance
- restoration to the land
- the new covenant
- the outpouring of His Spirit on Israel

The background of the slide is a grayscale photograph of a rugged, rocky landscape. In the foreground, there are large, dark boulders scattered across a light-colored, rocky ground. In the middle ground, a person is standing on a path, looking towards the distance. The background features more rocky terrain and a few tall, thin rock formations under a pale sky.
